4. COOKIES AND ANALYTICS SERVICES

Analytics Data we gather in connection with the use of our Website includes for example the following data: (i) your IP address; (ii) device and device identification number; (iii) operating system; (iv) time of visit; (v) browser type and version; (vi) language setting.

Cookies

We use various technologies to collect and store Analytics Data and other information when the Users visit the Website, including cookies and web beacons.

Cookies are small text files sent and saved on your device that allows us to identify visitors of the Website and facilitate the use of the Services and to create aggregate information of our visitors. This helps us to improve the Services and better serve our Users. The cookies will not harm your device or files. We use cookies to tailor the Services and the information we provide in accordance with the individual interests of our Users.

The Users may choose to set their web browser to refuse cookies, or to alert when cookies are being sent. For example, the following links provide information on how to adjust the cookie settings on some popular browsers:

- Safari
- Google Chrome
- Internet Explorer
- Mozilla Firefox

Please note that some parts of the Services may not function properly if use of cookies is refused.

A web beacon is a technology that allows identifying readers of Website and emails e.g. for identifying whether an email has been read.

Web analytics services

The Website use Google Analytics, Facebook Pixel and other web analytics services to compile Analytics Data and reports on visitor usage and to help us improve the Services.

Google Analytics, is a tool developed by Google Inc., (1600 Amphitheater Parkway, Mountain View, CA 94043, USA), and used worldwide, a so-called cookie used by third parties, that registers users' activity on the site, anonymously, that is, without identifying and without the identifiability of the specific user. With Google Analytics, the Company can receive visitor information and statements that can help enhance the Company's website or services. Such data may include the number of visitors to the website; information about where, from what other website, how did the visitor arrive; which pages of the website, and in what order they viewed, etc. Learn more about Google Analytics cookies on this link.

Facebook Pixel tool allows us to understand and deliver ads and make them more relevant to you. The collected data remains anonymous and MPS cannot see the personal data of any individual user.

5. DO WE TRANSFER YOUR DATA OUTSIDE THE EEA?

The Company stores the Users' personal data within the European Economic Area. We do not transfer your data outside the EEA.

However, we have service providers in several geographical locations. As such, we, and our service providers may transfer personal data to, or access it in, jurisdictions outside the European Economic Area or the User's domicile.

6. WHO ELSE RECEIVES YOUR DATA?

We do not share personal data with third parties outside of the MPS organization unless one of the following circumstances apply:

For legal reasons

We may share personal data with third parties outside our organization if we have a good-faith belief that access to and use of the personal data is reasonably necessary to: (i) meet any applicable law, regulation, and/or court order; (ii) detect, prevent, or otherwise address fraud, security or technical issues; and/or (iii) protect the interests, properties or safety of the Company, the Users or the public in accordance with the law. When possible, we will inform the Users about such transfer and processing.

To authorized service providers

We may share personal data to authorized service providers (data processors) who perform services on behalf of us ~~for us~~ (including data storage, sales, marketing and customer support services). Our agreements with our service providers include commitments that the service providers agree to limit their use of personal data and to comply with privacy and security standards at least as stringent as the terms of this Privacy Policy. The following data processors are used by the Company in the provision of the services:

- Facebook Pixel;
- Google Analytics;
- Google Cloud Platform;
- GoDaddy;

With explicit consent

We may share personal data with third parties outside our organization for other reasons than the ones mentioned before, when we have the User's explicit consent to do so.

During the application process to the Event on the Website, the User may grant us his/her consent to share some User Data (name, e-mail address, educational and work history) with the premium sponsors of the Event for recruitment purposes (the 'Recruitment Partners'). This data transfer is a core part of the sustainability of the Event. The Recruitment Partner shall be considered an individual data controller in respect of the transferred User Data.

The User shall have to right of the withdrawal of consent relating to the transfers of User Data to Recruitment Partners. Such consent withdrawal relates solely to the future transfers of the User Data from us to such Recruitment Partners and not to the transfers having taken place prior to the withdrawal or the processing activities of the Recruitment Partners. The Recruitment Partners are solely responsible for their processing of User Data and the User shall contact the Recruitment Partners independently should he/she have questions relating to their processing activities or should he/she want to prohibit them from further processing the User Data.

7. YOUR RIGHTS AS A USER

Right to access

The Users have the right to access the personal data relating to them and processed by the Company. This means that the Users may contact us, and we will inform what personal data we have collected and processed regarding the said User and communicate the purposes such data are used for.

Right to withdraw consent

In case the processing is based on a consent granted by the User, the User may withdraw the consent at any time. The withdrawal of consent does not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal.

Right to rectify

The Users have the right to have incorrect, imprecise, incomplete, outdated, or unnecessary personal data we have stored about the User corrected or completed. By contacting us on the addresses indicated above, the User may update e.g. his/her contact details or other personal data.

Right to deletion

The Users may also ask us to delete the Users' personal data from our systems. We will comply with such request unless we have a legitimate ground not to delete the data. Such legitimate ground may be based on e.g. applicable legislation.

Right to object

You may have the right to object to certain use of your personal data if such data are processed based on the legitimate interest of us or a third person. If you object to the further processing of your personal data, this may lead to fewer possibilities to use the Services or to participate in the Events.

Right to restriction of processing

You may request us to restrict processing of personal data for example when your data erasure, rectification or objection requests are pending and/or when we do not have legitimate grounds to process your data. This may however lead to fewer possibilities to use the Services or to participate in the Events.

Right to data portability

The Users have the right to receive their personal data from us in a structured and commonly used format and to independently transmit those data to a third party.

How to exercise your rights

The above rights may be exercised by sending a letter or an e-mail to us on the addresses set out above. We may request the provision of additional information necessary to confirm the identity of the User. We may reject requests that are unreasonably repetitive, excessive or manifestly unfounded.

9. A LITTLE BIT ABOUT DIRECT MARKETING

The User has the right to prohibit us from using the User's personal data for direct marketing purposes, market research and profiling made for direct marketing purposes by contacting us on the addresses indicated above or by using the unsubscribe possibility offered in connection with any direct marketing messages.

10. IF WE HAVE A SERIOUS DEBATE, YOU CAN:

The User can lodge a complaint with the local supervisory authority for data protection, in a member state of EU of his or her habitual residence, place of work or place of the alleged infringement, in case the User considers the Company's processing of personal data to be inconsistent with the applicable data protection laws.

11. HOW DO WE PROTECT YOUR DATA?

We use administrative, organizational, technical, and physical safeguards to protect the personal data we collect and process. Measures include for example, where appropriate, encryption, pseudonymization, firewalls, secure facilities and access right systems. Our security controls are designed to maintain an appropriate level of data confidentiality, integrity, availability, resilience and ability to restore the data. We regularly test the Website, systems, and other assets for security vulnerabilities.

Should despite of the security measures, a security breach occur that is likely to have negative effects to the privacy of the Users, we will inform the relevant Users and other affected parties, as well as relevant authorities when required by applicable data protection laws, about the breach as soon as possible.
